Jamaican High Commissioner pays Farewell Courtesy Call to the ACS

His Excellency Arthur Williams, High Commissioner for Jamaica to the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, and Permanent Representative of Jamaica to the ACS, paid a Farewell Courtesy Call to the ACS Secretary General, H.E. Rodolfo Sabonge on August 23, 2023. Their discussion surrounded matters related to the financial constraints and possibilities in respect of the ACS Budget, as well as broadening the Association's scope in terms of visibility and branding.

High Commissioner Williams reflected on his term in office and further expressed his optimism that the ACS can accomplish its goals. Secretary General Sabonge thanked him for his support of the ACS, his collaboration with the Secretariat and wished him every success in his new posting.
