ACS attends the 1st Ministerial Summit on Environmental Sustainability

ACS Secretary General Rodolfo Sabonge delivered an intervention at the 1st Ministerial Summit on Environmental Sustainability held as part of the Latin America and the Caribbean Regional Programme of the OECD. In his intervention, His Excellency highlighted the importance of the ocean economy, the need to declare the Caribbean Sea as a special zone and the need of concerted action against the influx of sargassum in the Greater Caribbean.