

ACS holds the 9th Coordination Mechanism Meeting

The ACS begins 2024 with its 9th Coordinating Mechanism Meeting. The meeting was held virtually and had the objective of aligning strategies among the Special Committees and the Caribbean Sea Commission to address the challenges facing the region, including climate change and connectivity, both physical and digital.

The meeting highlighted the importance of active collaboration among the membership. The representatives in attendance reaffirmed their commitment to work towards achieving the goals of the organisation.