ACS Congratulates The Honourable Shirley Ayorkor Botchwey on Her Appointment as Commonwealth Secretary-General

The Association of Caribbean States (ACS) congratulates The Honourable Shirley Ayorkor Botchwey of Ghana on assuming the post of Secretary-General of the Commonwealth. Her distinguished diplomatic career and commitment to multilateralism exemplify strong leadership and dedication to international cooperation.

Her appointment is a significant milestone in advancing women's leadership in global decision-making. The ACS values the close relationship between the Commonwealth and the Greater Caribbean and reaffirms its commitment to strengthening collaboration on sustainable development, climate resilience, and regional integration.

We wish her great success in her tenure and look forward to working together for the benefit of our regions and peoples.
