ACS Secretary-General Highlights the Importance of Strengthening Regional Cooperation

Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago. October 2026 — In an interview with journalist Mylène Colmar, the Secretary-General of the Association of Caribbean States (ACS), H.E. Noemí Espinoza Madrid, shared her vision for the future of the Greater Caribbean and the Association's role in strengthening regional cooperation.

The conversation explored the priorities of the Greater Caribbean 2035 Strategic Plan, the institutional transformation of the ACS, and the importance of advancing collective action to address shared challenges and unlock new opportunities for regional development.

Read the full interview:

- [English]
- [French]